

FINO SHERRY MATURED

The Fino Sherry Matured limited edition is a vatting of 12 Fino Sherry Butts. The whisky has spent its full maturation in fino casks previously used by Bodega Miguel Martin in Spain. During its time in cask, the whisky has taken on the fresh green apple character of fino butts, balancing beautifully with the citrus sweetness, cooked fruits and maritime peat smoke of Kilchoman.

Nose: fresh and floral with plenty of coastal influence. Seaside freshness gives way to tropical fruit, light citrus and malty sweetness.

Palate: juicy tropical fruit and heavy earthy peat smoke combine with chilli heat, lemon zest and a creamy, malty sweetness.

Finish: long and bold with heavy peat smoke, cashews and almonds with the dry saline influence of the fino coming forward

Kilchoman and Sherry Cask Maturation

Manzanilla

Fino

Driest, most saline type of sherry which gives Kilchoman whisky layers of fragrant green apple.

Oloroso

A medium-dry style of sherry which gives our whiskies a range of cooked and dried fruit influence.

Amontillado
Palo Cortado

Pedro Ximénez

A sweet sherry sherry that adds waves of richness and intensely sweet flavours to Kilchoman whiskies.
